

lars? In the Chinese language there is a large Mohammedan literature, but only three little pamphlets have been published so far that are specially adapted to the thirty million Moslems of China. Here is a call for the man with literary tastes and talent for languages.

Distribution of Scripture

Then there is the world-wide opportunity, even in the most difficult fields, for the distribution of the Word of God among Moslems by colporteurs and missionaries. Not without reason does the Koran always speak of Christians as "the people of the Book." Ours is the opportunity to prove it by carrying the Book to every Moslem in the world. We can safely leave the verdict on the Book to the Moslem himself. Last year there were issued from the Christian presses at Constantinople and Beirut, in languages read by Mohammedans, over fifty million pages of Christian literature, and these books are not printed for free distribution, but for sale. The demand for Christian literature is everywhere on the increase. I have myself received an order by mail at Bahrein from a Moslem at Mecca for an Arabic reference Bible and a concordance, and from the Beirut press they are sending Arabic Scriptures to the Moslems of China.

Value of Medical Mission Work

The opportunities for medical mission work among Moslems are very great, because there is
