

we take up that cry in a nobler crusade with the sword of the Spirit?

An Unbefitting Contrast

At Bethlehem, where Christ was born Mohammed's name is called from minarets five times daily; but at Mecca, where Mohammed was born, no Christian dares to enter. Is this to be the measure of our consecration? Is this the extent of our loyal devotion to the cause of our King? His place occupied by a usurper and his glory given to another. Shall we not arise and win back the lost kingdom? Missions to Moslems are the only Christian solution of the Eastern question and of the Moslem problem everywhere.

God Wills It

God wills it. Let our rallying cry be: "Every stronghold of Islam for Christ!" God wills it; therefore we must do it. God wills it; therefore he will accomplish it. God wills it; therefore we will ask him to do it speedily: "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done," throughout the Mohammedan world.

"Not in dumb resignation
We lift our hands on high,
Not like the nerveless fatalist,
Content to trust and die;
Our faith springs like the eagle
That soars to meet the sun,
And cries exulting unto thee:
O Lord! Thy will be done!"
